Reference Checking Service Training THIS Wednesday
Last week, HROE announced a new partnership with Xref (an online reference checking service) to conduct reference checks in support of the university’s recruiting program. All organizations within the university have access to Xref and the application is now available for use.

During the initial rollout of Xref, HR Liaisons will be the primary users of the service. Although using Xref is optional, we encourage you to sign up and start using Xref today! We are hosting two live training sessions on Wednesday, November 20 with trainers from Xref. Please click here to see more information about Xref and to sign up for training. Feedback from our pilot group as well as our early adopters has been very positive and they are extremely pleased with the results. Please send any questions to jobs@tamu.edu with Xref in the subject line.

Form I-9 Reminders
Texas A&M University participates in E-Verify which requires electronic verification of a new hire’s eligibility to work in the United States using their Social Security Number (SSN). HR Liaisons have the responsibility to follow up with a new hire to ensure the SSN is received and entered into Guardian within 45 days of their hire date. Please monitor your Guardian To Do list for missing SSNs in Guardian. Contact UIN-I9@tamu.edu to add an amendment to a new hire’s I-9 once the SSN is received. Please send any questions to UIN-I9@tamu.edu.

Timing of Communications to Employees Impacted by the Overtime Regulations
There has been a delay in planned email communications to employees and their supervisors impacted by the January 1, 2020 change in federal overtime regulations. The email notifications have been delayed due to Workday testing the impact of the planned December 29, 2019 effective date. Employees changing from monthly-paid to biweekly-paid due to the new salary threshold for exemption may require manual processing by HROE and Payroll Services to assure correct benefits deductions from their January paychecks.

Although individual notifications have been delayed, departments who are aware of employees changing to biweekly are encouraged to promote registration for informational sessions and FLSA Working Hours workshops that begin on Wednesday, November 13 and are scheduled through December 12. We expect to finalize and distribute communications this week, pending completion of Workday testing and final decisions on procedures. Note that this Workday testing issue does not impact employees who are getting a pay adjustment and remaining monthly-paid. Additional process information is forthcoming for changes to biweekly, effective dates and pay adjustments. If you have any questions, contact Classification and Compensation at 979.845.4170 or hrcomp@tamu.edu for Texas A&M, or hschr@tamu.edu for the Texas A&M Health Science Center.

Reminder: Registration Open for Overtime Regulations Informational Sessions and FLSA Working Hours Workshops
HR Liaisons, as well as supervisors and employees impacted by the new overtime regulations, are encouraged to register for one of the informational sessions and FLSA Working Hours workshops that have been scheduled. Several dates, including sessions this week, are available and open for registration through TrainTraq. These sessions are primarily for employees becoming non-exempt due to the new salary threshold and for managers of those employees becoming non-exempt. The primary learning objective of the FLSA Working Hours workshops is to help employees understand the concepts of working time as defined by federal regulations, so that this is as smooth a transition for them as possible. The primary learning objectives of the informational session are to gain an understanding of the federal regulation changes, the impact on employees and supervisors and next steps. Both trainings will be held in the Memorial Student Center (MSC) and online via Zoom to accommodate those who are not located on main campus or who otherwise cannot attend in person. Below is the course name and course number for the trainings:

2114022: Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) Working Hours Workshop
2114023: Overti...
Note: The Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) Working Hours Workshop will not count towards the HR Liaison certification.

If you have any questions, contact Classification and Compensation at 979.845.4170 or hrcomp@tamu.edu for Texas A&M, or hschr@tamu.edu for the Texas A&M Health Science Center.

UPDATE: Who to Contact About HR / Payroll / Workday Questions
The Who to Contact in HROE resource has been recently updated on the HROE website. This resource is intended to assist you in identifying where to direct your HR inquiry and includes contacts in Payroll Services, Dean of Faculties, FAMIS Services, OGAPS, Student Employment Office and Tax, Compliance and Reporting. If you are unsure about whom to direct your HR question to, you may contact HRnetwork@tamu.edu.

Note that all employees should contact the appropriate Human Resources and Payroll Services department within their System Member – HROE / Payroll Services for Texas A&M University and Texas A&M Health Science Center. If the question or issue needs to be elevated, HROE and Payroll Services will work with the appropriate System Office (either System Benefits Administration or Workday Services) to research and determine the correct course of action. Employees should not contact System Benefits Administration or Workday Services directly.

Updated Online Course: Orientation to the A&M System
TrainTraq course 99004: Orientation to the A&M System, has been updated to reflect recent changes to the A&M System such as the addition of the Texas Division of Emergency Management and an updated closed captioning feature. The Orientation to the A&M System course is automatically assigned to all new employees of the A&M System. No action is required. If you have any questions about this course, please contact Organization Development at PDinfo@tamu.edu.

Deadline for Graduating Students on Work Study
Sent on behalf of Scholarships & Financial Aid
November 30th is the last day students graduating in December may be paid from work study funds. Please see attached Work Study Reminder from Financial Aid for further details.
Tax Compliance & Reporting

Sent on behalf of Tax Compliance & Reporting

In gearing up for year end, we ask that you please have your employee verify the following:

1. Their Home mailing address in Workday
2. Their SSN has been entered in Workday and there are no pending “To Do” tasks concerning the SSN submission in their Workday email inbox.
3. Election of their W-2 distribution method. Please encourage the electronic W-2 option and share with your employees the following:

By electing to receive an electronic W-2, you gain the following ADVANTAGES:

- Quicker access. Electronic W-2s are available as early as mid-January.
- Increased security. Mail delivery allows access to your personal sensitive information.
- Go green! Natural resources are saved by not printing and mailing W-2 forms.
- You can print your W-2 at any time and as many times as you would like.
- Your W-2 will be stored securely and you will have access for years to come.
- There is a cost savings for each form not printed and mailed.

Here’s how you sign up:

- Click on the Pay worklet on your Workday Home page
- Click on the "My Tax Documents" link
- Click the Edit button in the Printing Election column
- Select the radio button for "Receive electronic copy of my Year End Tax Documents."
- Click OK

As a reminder and to better serve our customers, we have shared email boxes that are designated for specific inquiries. Please submit your inquiries as follows:

- tax@tamu.edu - 1099s, W-2s, TRS, tax deductions
- internationaltax@tamu.edu – International tax inquiries (Glacier and international employees/vendors)
- form1098t@tamu.edu – 1098-T inquiries

PAYROLL SERVICES

Pay Calculation Results for a Period Report Updated

The Pay Calculation Results for a Period Report was recently updated with three new check boxes noted below; the "Only Return Positive Results" box is checked by default. To properly review the report, the report should contain all results. IMPORTANT CHANGE: In order to generate a complete report to review, you will need to uncheck the Only Return Positive Earnings checkbox; the final three check boxes must be blank in order to get all pay calculation result lines for the specified pay period.

Uncheck box to get all pay calculation results lines in your report
