Nomination Tips

By giving detailed examples about your nominee, you can help the selection committee better understand why your nominee should receive the President’s Meritorious Service Award.

- Give specific examples to reinforce what you are saying.
- Share examples of how he/she serves as a role model and/or mentor for others.
- Give several examples to show patterns of professional development over time.
- Detail accomplishments and his/her impact.
- Describe how their work performance demonstrates commitment to the Texas A&M University Core Values of excellence, integrity, leadership, loyalty, respect and selfless service (tamu.edu/about/coreValues.html).
- Consider how they have taken their position and made an impact, for the university, the volunteers, and/or the community.

Give specific examples – use descriptive language and then give a situation or example that shows why the individual or team should win the award. More details are much better than less details:

😊 Strong Example:
“Tobi is responsible for organizing the school's first multicultural training, an annual Cinco de Mayo celebration and organized assemblies featuring speakers of different cultural backgrounds.”

😊 Weak Example:
“Mary always celebrates diversity.”

😊 Strong Example:
“Quan realized some of our monthly reports were being prepared manually, he took it upon himself to automate the process. Quan even went as far as to train our team on Microsoft Access-with specific emphasis on how to apply the tools and techniques to our needs. He put together a terrific training session with handouts and notes that we continue to use as reference materials.”

😊 Weak Example:
“Quan is a true team player. He always comes to work with a smile on his face.”
